We are your partners for:

- Investigation of building materials and systems under the aspect of building physics.
- Participation and leading national and international research projects.
- Comfort of visitors of cultural heritage buildings.
- Specific problems regarding, solar irradiation, growth of micro-organisms on façades, influence of using passive solar energy or moisture buffering materials and indoor air.
- Deterioration of buildings and strategies to prevent them.

[Determination of cracking] [Condensate formation on a window frame] [Algal formation on a façade]

[Optimal climate field for historical objects] [Implementation of research projects]